Cleanest of all horse transports and flag of the transport service and the neatest of colliers, for she is both, the quartermaster's flag. U. S. A. transport Dix, Captain Ankers, arrived early yesterday morning from Manila and Nagasaki, en route to Seat- sailors and mess boys, tle, docking at the Navy wharf about 8 o'clock.

The Dix has 5000 tons of Nagasaki dismasted. The shipwrecked men were coal, 3000 to be discharged here and the suffering intensely from thirst at the balance retained for the transport's own use on the run hence to the Sound and back to Nagasaki. She will be here from a week to ten days, discharging about 500 tons of coal per day, working papers and the local press have re- from Bishop's wharf to the railway both hatches. Tomorrow being a holiday, Kamehameha Day, no cargo will be discharged.

No passengers for Honolulu arrived in the Dix. For the Coast she carries a few cabin travelers. Mrs. Izard, wife of Paymaster Izard at Manila, goes to seattle. Mrs. Izard's departure from by the S. S. Rosecrans, bound for the Manila robs that city of one of its most beautiful women. During her brief stop in Honolulu Mrs. Izard will be entertained by Lieutenant and Mrs. W. R. Cushman. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Redington are also en route to Seattle.

Quartermaster Captain Garrity is in charge of the transport and it may be his last trip for he has almost recovered from a peculiar accident sustained ashore sometime ago, when his left leg was seriously affected by a stroke of lightning. Rendered temporarily unfit for military duty on land a field of usefulness afloat was ready for him. All aboard the Dix will regret his leaving, if he is to leave upon reaching the

From Manila the Dix carried General and Mrs. Norton to Nagasaki and on approaching that port the army boat made a brave showing of colors, flying a flag for the general at the fore, the ship's number, the national colors, the
